CITY NEWS.

Colonel Marc Mundy, Commandant of this Post, has rooms at the Louisville Hotel, where strangers going South, arriving after office hours, and entitled to passes, may obtain them at seven o'clock A.M., in time to take the morning trains. No passes, however, will be given by the Commandant of the Post at his hotel to others than those arriving after office hours.

Mayville, Kentucky, captured by the Rebels.

We learn that a rebel force entered Mayville, Ky., yesterday, and took possession of the place. No particulars.

NEWS FROM THE NASHVILLE RAILROAD.—For the past few days it has been generally known that guerrillas have been prowling about different points along the line of the Louisville and Nashville railroad. Yesterday morning the passenger train going south, was stopped at the trestle work on Muldrugh's Hill, and forty men were put off there, supposing that some of the guerrillas were about. None were seen, and the train proceeded to Elizabethtown without any molestation. A dispatch was received from Upton that sixty-five rebels were at Sonora, four miles this side of Upton. The train started down the road with a military train behind it. They went as far as Glendale, at which point the military train was put in advance of the passenger train, and the two proceeded cautiously down the road. Upon arriving at Nolin, it was still reported that a body of them were at Sonora. The trains moved on, and finally went into Snora without a shot being fired. The rebels had down some three hours before the train arrived, taking with them about forty dollars worth of hats and a lot of horses which they had stolen. It is reported that the Home Guard corps, amounting to eight men, commanded by Silverhead, ran the rebels out of the place—scared them off.

The train then went the balance of the journey without any fears of an attack. The up-train on arriving at Nolin heard that a rebel force was moving upon Elizabethtown, and, upon arriving there, found everybody in a blaze of excitement. The pickets had been driven in twice yesterday by the guerrillas. The train was stopped by a sentinel at trestle-work No. 2, and the colonel commanding the Fiftieth Ohio got aboard and rode down to trestle-work No. 1, where he said the rebels were in the hollow, advancing on the trestle-work. He was put off there to watch the rebels, and Captain Fish Henry thinking it prudent to do some "tall running," came on to Lebanon Junction, where it was reported that a large rebel force was expected to attack Gallatin, Tenn., last night or to-day. The train came on to this city, arriving a few minutes behind time, with a big trip of passengers. Captain Henry is a lucky conductor, and Billy Clark knows exactly how to keep an engine on the track in time of danger.

RECENTS.—The celebrated "carry-all" Workhouse wagon—brought eleven fine, healthy-looking men in from the Workhouse yesterday, and placed them in the cage. They were released from the Workhouse and every one of them enlisted in the Federal service. They were sworn in by Judge Johnston. They go into camp at Eminence, Ky., where Col. Speed Pee is recruiting a regiment of men for the United States service.

BROKEN UR.—A lot of free negroes and slaves who have been in the habit of spending the Sabbath playing cards, drinking whisky, &c., were surprised on Sunday by some of the police, who arrested four of the party and put them in jail. This rendezvous is in the alley between Second and Third, and Market and Jefferson streets. We are glad that such insubitions are being broken up in this city.

A lot of rebel prisoners—upward of one hundred—came Sunday night on the Nashville train. Some of them were the "chivalric sons" who went into the horse business on their own hook at Elizabethtown. They will hook no more for awhile.

SUICIDE.—A German woman, about 25 years of age, jumped from the cane bridge into the canal, Sunday night, and drowned herself. Her body was found yesterday. It is not known who she is, or what caused her to commit the act.

There was a large crowd of bad boys "playing battle," up town, Sunday night, by throwing stones and chasing each other through the streets. We hope the police will take active part in the next battle that comes off.

A man named Willis Francis was arrested yesterday, charged with giving information to the rebels at Elizabethtown on Saturday, during their "brilliant and successful strategic movement upon a train of cars."

We have been unable to learn anything concerning the bloody affray on the corner of Third and Market streets, Sunday. A drunken Irishman ran his nose into Soe's fish stand, about noon, but didn't hurt it much.

Can't the superintendent of the Portland railroad put on the street an omnibus especially for negro women? They have grown so self important of late that they are beginning to crowd white women out of the way.

Officer Tom McEvigue was arrested Sunday by order of the court martial now in session for contempt of that court, he failing to appear as a witness in a case before that body.

Parson Bristow delivered another large lot of soldiers' packages, yesterday, containing money, to the wives and families of the soldiers in the Louisville Legion.

The extra session of the Circuit Court met Monday morning in the Circuit Court-room.

Bob. Harrison's paper, the Henderson News, is as spicy a sheet as can be found among our exchanges.

Most of the horses stolen by the rebels at Elizabethtown have been recaptured, with the men that stole them.

ARREST OF DICK MOORE.—When the horses, under command of Hines, were in Elizabethtown on Saturday, several individuals made "themselves acquain" with the party. Among the number was Dick Moore, of this city. On the arrival of the train from Nashville, on Sunday evening, Richard made his appearance in time to be arrested by the military authorities and incarcerated in the military prison. He was searched, but nothing of a contraband nature found upon his person. Richard was unwilling to take the oath which was to be administered to him and release him, but he said, as whole families have said before him, "I will rot in prison before I take that oath." Will some one of the clerks furnish us with a list of the rebels who have "rotted" in the military prisons in the United States? We guess it won't be long before he will claim, "Richard is himself again."

LOUISVILLE FEMALE HIGH SCHOOL.—We take pleasure in announcing to the public and ladies and gentlemen—that the oral examination of the Louisville Female High School commences to-morrow morning in the High School building, corner of Center and Walnut streets, commencing at 8½ o'clock. EMINENCE FEMALE COLLEGE.—The commencement exercises at the Eminence Female College will come off on to-day and to-morrow. This institution has maintained its former flourishing condition throughout the war troubles which have been upon us during the past two years. Under the presidency of Professor Giltner it has deservedly attained a wide-spread popularity. The closing exercises of the school will be at once interesting and instructive, and will doubtless be largely attended by the citizens of Henry county.

HEAVY LOAD.—We noticed yesterday, on one of Dumon's mammoth wagons, drawn by four horses, driven by John Grimes, a solid block of Carrara marble just received from Italy, weighing twenty thousand pounds. It was shipped to this country expressly for Messrs. Muldoon & Co., of this city, to manufacture for the home trade. It was hauled from Jeffersonville and unloaded in front of their store without sustaining any injury whatever.

MALE HIGH SCHOOL.—The examination of the scholars of the Male High School commenced yesterday in their building, corner of Ninth and Chestnut streets, and will be continued to-day—commencing at nine o'clock A.M. and three o'clock P.M. The public are invited to be present on the occasion, as the examinations of this institution are exciting an universal interest on the part of all friends who are interested in the cause of education.

MR. WHIPPLE'S CONCERT.—We are happy to learn that Mr. Whipple has yielded to the universal desire for another of those delightful concerts—a similar concert to the one given on Thursday, the 11th, will be given on Tuesday, the 23d inst. Our citizens will thus have another opportunity of hearing the sweet voices of the young songsters.

THE WIDOW.—There are at present in our city quite a number of widows whose husbands have sacrificed their lives upon the altar of their country—men who have left their wives, children and homes—all that was near and dear to them in this world—to march against the rebellious foe that invaded our soil. These poor unfortunate women, in many instances, are entirely destitute of means, having no homes to go to, no friends to whom they can appeal for assistance, and who are consequently forced to walk about the lonely streets, their hearts nearly broken with grief. Here is an instance: About twelve o'clock on Thursday night we had occasion to step into the Postoffice. Seated upon the steps, near the entrance, was a woman, dressed in plain black, with a dark-colored sun-bonnet drawn closely about her face. The poor woman seemed about to burst with grief. We asked her a few questions, which caused her to tell us the following, which, if true, must have been a sad fate: "My husband enlisted in the army just after the war broke out, thinking the rebellion would be put down in a little while, and he would return to our happy little home again." "Where did you live?" "In Knox county, sir. My little child died sometime afterwards, and not a soul was present to record: George W. Griffis, qualified as executor; W. A. Nally security.
